NI 100 - CENTURY OF ACHIEVEMENT

Northern Ireland has produced world leaders in the military, industry, medicine and the arts, as well as many sporting greats.

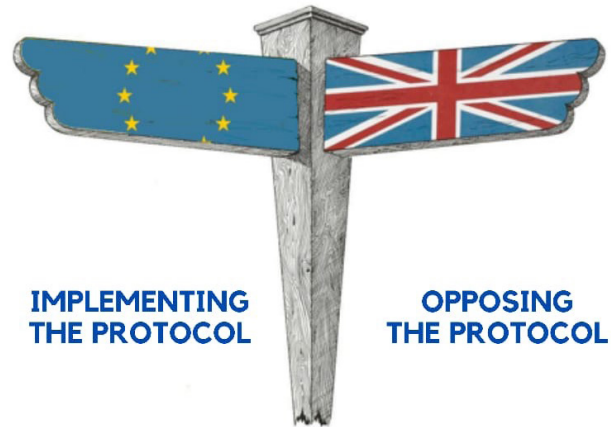

There is much to celebrate about our remarkable people, not least their determination to ensure the triumph of democracy over terrorism. We remember those who paid the supreme sacrifice and preserved our right to self-determination.

EVEN CENTENARY STONE BLOCKED BY SINN FEIN BIGOTRY

The shameful fact that Sinn Fein was able to block a permanent monument marking the centenary at the seat of government is a telling commentary on the present Stormont system of Sinn Fein rule.

YOU CAN'T HAVE IT BOTH WAYS

WHICH UNION WILL YOU STAND UP FOR?
THE EUROPEAN UNION
OR OUR BRITISH UNION?

THE TOP PRIORITY - DEFEATING THE PROTOCOL

Faced with a High Court ruling that the Protocol has repealed Article 6 of the Act of Union - which created the economic union of the UK - the Union is being dismantled before our eyes. The goal of the Protocol is to prise us apart from GB and build an all-Ireland economy, knowing it is a short step from economic union to political union!

The repeal of this key part of the Act of Union should be a wakeup call to every Unionist, including those who are still foolishly implementing the Protocol. Words of opposition count for nothing when contradicted by the actions of implementation. Likewise, proposing that the response to the dismantling of our east/west links should be more north/southerly is as absurd as it is dangerous.

TUV has led the way in opposing our annexation by the EU. While some trusted Boris Johnston and even contemplated a regulatory border in the Irish Sea and others would settle for mere tinkering, TUV is clear. No Protocol. No Sea Border. No subjection to foreign laws. No implementation of our own destruction!

TUV has long argued that the Prime Minister must be forced to choose between saving the Protocol or saving the Stormont institutions. He can't have both. If the price of Stormont is implementing the Union-dismantling Protocol, then that is a price no unionist should pay. Now is the time to turn words into action. Serious and sustained political action is required.

WITH TUV YOU GET THE REAL DEAL!

THE DANGER OF IRISH LANGUAGE LEGISLATION

Under proposals agreed by the DUP, Sinn Fein, Alliance and SDLP in New Decade New Approach, Irish will have official recognition in law. An Irish Language Commissioner will have legal powers to "enhance" the use of Irish throughout the public sector in the provision of services, devise standards and monitor compliance - the resulting link to future recruitment is obvious!

With over £200m spent feting the Irish language in recent years, there is no justification for further endless squander on Irish for the sake of paying the Sinn Fein ransom to get a failed Stormont back.

TUV opposes ransom politics and refuses to pander to Sinn Fein.

A BETTER WAY

Though limited at present to a single MLA, TUV has made its mark at Stormont - and in the polls. Whether it's challenging Sinn Fein, fighting Stormont squander, or our resolute opposition to two-tier policing, Jim Allister stands up for what's right. He does not roll over.

TUV is also committed to bringing better government to Northern Ireland. We don't just complain, but use our position to propose sensible long-term solutions. Jim Allister successfully piloted two Bills through Stormont to solve the issue of the highly-paid, unaccountable SpAds - whose power and behaviour came under criticism during RHI. Now, their number and cost has been reduced, and for the first time advisors have been brought under the NICS disciplinary code. SpAds and ministers must now keep proper records of meetings, and can face criminal charges if they leak official information.

But we want to go much further. Stormont currently guarantees Sinn Fein - who doesn't want Northern Ireland to exist, never mind succeed - a place in government forever. Remember when Stormont couldn't meet because Sinn Fein said no? Stormont at the grace and favour of Sinn Fein is not worth having.

We want proper democracy, durable government and an Opposition. You deserve the right to vote a party out of office - yet you can't, because of the folly of mandatory coalition.

Root and branch change is vital. We need you to join us in building a better Northern Ireland. Let's, together, keep TUV's momentum going.

MESSAGE FROM JIM ALLISTER:

Unionism has nothing left to give. We need to rebuild and fight back. Defeating the Union-dismantling Protocol is essential, not optional. Propping up Sinn Fein in government is a failed endeavour. TUV is clear on all these issues. We tell it as it is.
